

How Do We Get There From Here?

We all nod in agreement with the desire to reach Louisiana with the Gospel. But how do we get there from here?

Jesus outlines the process in Mark 4:26-29.

The kingdom of God is like this ... A man scatters seed... He sleeps and rises night and day; the seed sprouts and grows, although he doesn't know how. The soil produces a crop... first the blade, then the head, and then the full grain on the head. As soon as the crop is ready, he sends for the sickle, because the harvest has come.

Understand, nothing happens until the seed is scattered (v.26). Louisiana will not be reached as long as the seeds of the Gospel remain unscattered.

Next, visible results take time (v. 27). In our instant culture this is hard to grasp.

We don't understand the process (v 27). This is where obedience and faith intersect. Our job is to throw the seed. We don't have to understand - we just have to do it.

The fruit appears gradually. (v. 28). Reaching Louisiana doesn't occur in one massive swoop.

Finally, there is a harvest related to the scattered seed (v.29). The harvest is sure – once the seeds are scattered.
