ARTICLE IV. PURPOSE

Section 1. The purpose of this Convention is to provide means through which Louisiana Baptist churches and members can cooperate in bringing persons to God throughout the world.

Section 5. This Convention will do all its work in accord with the principle that the Bible is the inspired, inerrant, and infallible Word of God, and is sufficient for all faith and practice, and is truth without any mixture of error in every area of which it speaks (Matthew 22:29).

ARTICLE V. REGISTERED OFFICE

BUSINESS AND FINANCIAL PLAN OF LOUISIANA BAPTIST CONVENTION

I. Preliminary Provisions

Each agency and institution of the Convention shall submit to the Business and Finance Committee of the Executive Board (1) an itemized estimate of its receipts for the next fiscal year, and (2) an itemized estimate of its expenditures for the next fiscal year.

The Executive Board shall recommend to the Convention a budget based on an analysis of the aforementioned data, which budget shall include allocations to agencies and institutions.

“Agencies” shall include the Baptist Message, Louisiana Baptist Foundation, and the Executive Board. “Institutions” shall include Louisiana Baptist Children’s Home, and Louisiana College.

The Budget and Financial Data Query Form shall include itemized estimates of receipts and expenditures for a three-year period, past, present and projected, as indicated in the report form.

II. Fiscal Periods

Except where agreement otherwise is effected between an agency or institution and the Executive Board, the financial affairs of the Convention and all agencies or institutions owned, operated and controlled by the Louisiana Baptist Convention, shall be operated on the calendar year.

III. Disbursement of Monetary Funds

The executive director shall disburse all monies in accordance with the provisions of the Convention budget. Exceptions to this must have Convention approval.

Each agency or institution of the Convention is hereby instructed and ordered to keep all trust funds and/or designated gifts (for they are trust funds) sacred to the trust or the designation involved, and that they be kept separate from all other funds of such agency or institution.

Disbursement of Cooperative Program and Designated funds will be made immediately after closing of the books and in no event shall they be made later than the 10th of each month.

Inasmuch as each church is an autonomous body it has the inherent right, as is of course true with each individual, to make designations as desired. When a designated gift is received at the Baptist Building Business Office it shall be recorded and the gift will be forwarded forthwith to the designated object or person. An exception is that any gift received by any Louisiana Baptist Convention entity from a church that affirms, approves, or endorses homosexual behavior shall be returned to the donor. The acceptance and disbursement of any gifts shall not be construed as endorsement or agreement with the beliefs and practices of the donor.

Allocations for agencies and institutions from the Cooperative Program shall be determined on the basis of church gifts to the Cooperative Program and church designations the previous year and on the basis of needs and requirements of institutions and agencies as evaluated by the Business and Finance Committee and the Executive Board with recommended allocations to be voted by the Convention each year.

In the event that Cooperative Program receipts are less than the budget, distribution of funds to the respective agencies and institutions will be made on the basis of budget percentage of actual receipts.

IV. Special Solicitations

Any special campaigns for funds by an agency or institution owned, controlled, or supported by the Convention, must first secure the endorsement and approval of the Executive Board and the Convention. This is not to be construed as prohibiting any agency or institution from approaching individuals or corporations for gifts, it being understood that such approach to an individual or corporation is to be made only by personal contact or personal correspondence.

V. Capital Investments and Liabilities

Without the approval of the Convention or Executive Board, no liability or indebtedness exceeding $100,000 or 2% of a Convention entity's annual operating budget (whichever is greater), shall be incurred by a Convention entity other than those that can be repaid from anticipated receipts for operating purposes and/or capital needs within a period of three years from the date such obligations were incurred. A report on all entity indebtedness shall be made to the Executive Board annually.

VI. Emergency Reserves

Each agency and institution of this Convention shall set up a reserve for contingencies to provide for deficits that may occur either through decreased receipts or through emergencies.

The goal shall be that all agencies/institutions move immediately to accumulate funds in their operating reserve to 30 days operation within a long-term goal of at least three months.

VII. Financial Reports

Each agency and institution of the Convention shall close its books and accounts, and have them audited by a Certified Public Accountant as of the close of its fiscal year, and in turn shall forward two copies of its audit to the executive director as soon as available. These audits are to be studied by the Business and Finance Committee of the Executive Board, and shall include the following:

- 1) Balance Sheet
- 2) Analysis of surplus accounts
- 3) Income and expense
- 4) Classified list of investments by fund and type of investment
- 5) Receipts:
 - (a) Cooperative receipts
 - (b) Designated receipts
 - (c) Other income

Each agency and institution shall submit a report on the Budget and Financial Data form on or before June 1 of each year. A balance sheet of the financial condition after May 31 and prior to September 1 of the current year shall be submitted for publication in the current Book of Reports and Annual.

VIII. Handling of Funds

All persons who handle funds or securities for any agency or institution shall be adequately bonded. Discretion shall be exercised in the handling of all securities, deeds, notes and other valuable records (legal documents), and there must always be express authority from the proper source for such handling.

IX. Additional Agencies and Institutions

No new agency or institution shall be authorized by this Convention except after thorough study and presentation to the Convention for favorable action in two succeeding annual meetings.

X. Business Procedure

Each agency and institution of the Louisiana Baptist Convention as a normal operating policy shall refrain from entering any business transaction with a trustee or employee, or a business enterprise in which a trustee or employee has an interest. An exception to this policy may be made, at the discretion of the board of trustees, in any case wherein it appears that a commodity or service at the discretion of the board, is found to be in the best interest of the agency or institution. Competitive bids should be taken if practicable. In any case being considered for exception, the extent of the trustees' or employees' interest shall be disclosed to the entire board.

XI. Professional Services

The Executive Board at its discretion may employ an auditor to study the audited report with the auditors of the agencies and institutions in the light of Convention instructions.

The Executive Board at its discretion may employ an engineer or architect to study proposed capital projects or maintenance of present capital assets.

XII. Amendments

This Business and Financial Plan may be altered by two-thirds of the messengers present and voting at any time except during the last session (of the Convention), provided that recommended changes shall have been presented to the Executive Board and published in the Baptist Message (print edition or digital edition) at least one month in advance of the Convention.

BAPTIST FAITH AND MESSAGE

Adopted by the Southern Baptist Convention, June 14, 2000

The 1999 session of the Southern Baptist Convention, meeting in Atlanta, Georgia, adopted the following motion addressed to the President of the Convention:

“I move that in your capacity as Southern Baptist Convention chairman, you appoint a blue ribbon committee to review the Baptist Faith and Message statement with the responsibility to report and bring any recommendations to this meeting next June in Orlando.”

President Paige Patterson appointed the committee as follows: Max Barnett (OK), Steve Gaines (AL), Susie Hawkins (TX), Rudy A. Hernandez (TX), Charles S. Kelley, Jr. (LA), Heather King (IN), Richard D. Land (TN), Fred Luter (LA), R. Albert Mohler, Jr. (KY), T. C. Pinckney (VA), Nelson Price (GA), Adrian Rogers (TN), Roger Spradlin (CA), Simon Tsoi (AZ), Jerry Vines (FL). Adrian Rogers (TN) was appointed chairman.

Your committee thus constituted begs leave to present its report as follows:

Baptists are a people of deep beliefs and cherished doctrines. Throughout our history we have been a confessional people, adopting statements of faith as a witness to our beliefs and a pledge of our faithfulness to the doctrines revealed in Holy Scripture.

Our confessions of faith are rooted in historical precedent, as the church in every age has been called upon to define and defend its beliefs. Each generation of Christians bears the responsibility of guarding the treasury of truth that has been entrusted to us [2 Timothy 1:14]. Facing a new century, Southern Baptists must meet the demands and duties of the present hour.

New challenges to faith appear in every age. A pervasive anti-supernaturalism in the culture was answered by Southern Baptists in 1925, when the Baptist Faith and Message was first adopted by this Convention. In 1963, Southern Baptists responded to assaults upon the authority and truthfulness of the Bible by adopting revisions to the Baptist Faith and Message. The Convention added an article on “The Family” in 1998, thus answering cultural confusion with the clear teachings of Scripture. Now, faced with a culture hostile to the very notion of truth, this generation of Baptists must claim anew the eternal truths of the Christian faith.

Your committee respects and celebrates the heritage of the Baptist Faith and Message, and affirms the decision of the Convention in 1925 to adopt the New Hampshire Confession of Faith, “revised at certain points and with some additional articles growing out of certain needs” We also respect the important contributions of the 1925 and 1963 editions of the Baptist Faith and Message.

With the 1963 committee, we have been guided in our work by the 1925 “statement of the historic Baptist conception of the nature and function of confessions of faith in our religious and denominational life” It is, therefore, quoted in full as a part of this report to the Convention:

(1) That they constitute a consensus of opinion of some Baptist body, large or small, for the general instruction and guidance of our own people and others concerning those articles of the Christian faith which are most surely held among us. They are not intended to add anything to the simple conditions of salvation revealed in the New Testament, viz., repentance toward God and faith in Jesus Christ as Saviour and Lord.

(2) That we do not regard them as complete statements of our faith, having any quality of finality or infallibility. As in the past so in the future, Baptists should hold themselves free to revise their statements of faith as may seem to them wise and expedient at any time.

(3) That any group of Baptists, large or small, have the inherent right to draw up for themselves and publish to the world a confession of their faith whenever they may think it advisable to do so.

(4) That the sole authority for faith and practice among Baptists is the Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments. Confessions are only guides in interpretation, having no authority over the conscience.

(5) That they are statements of religious convictions, drawn from the Scriptures, and are not to be used to hamper freedom of thought or investigation in other realms of life.

Baptists cherish and defend religious liberty, and deny the right of any secular or religious authority to impose a confession of faith upon a church or body of churches. We honor the principles of soul competency and the priesthood of believers, affirming together both our liberty in Christ and our accountability to each other under the Word of God.

Baptist churches, associations, and general bodies have adopted confessions of faith as a witness to the world, and as instruments of doctrinal accountability. We are not embarrassed to state before the world that these are doctrines we hold precious and as essential to the Baptist tradition of faith and practice.

As a committee, we have been charged to address the “certain needs” of our own generation. In an age increasingly hostile to Christian truth, our challenge is to express the truth as revealed in Scripture, and to bear witness to Jesus Christ, who is “the Way, the Truth, and the Life.”

The 1963 committee rightly sought to identify and affirm “certain definite doctrines that Baptists believe, cherish, and with which they have been and are now closely identified.” Our living faith is established upon eternal truths. “Thus this generation of Southern Baptists is in historic succession of intent and purpose as it endeavors to state for its time and theological climate those articles of the Christian faith which are most surely held among us.”

It is the purpose of this statement of faith and message to set forth certain teachings which we believe.

Respectfully Submitted,

The Baptist Faith and Message Study Committee

THE BAPTIST FAITH & MESSAGE

I. THE SCRIPTURES

The Holy Bible was written by men divinely inspired and is God's revelation of Himself to man. It is a perfect treasure of divine instruction. It has God for its author, salvation for its end, and truth, without any mixture of error, for its matter. Therefore, all Scripture is totally true and trustworthy. It reveals the principles by which God judges us, and therefore is, and will remain to the end of the world, the true center of Christian union, and the supreme standard by which all human conduct, creeds, and religious opinions should be tried. All Scripture is a testimony to Christ, who is Himself the focus of divine revelation.

Exodus 24:4; Deuteronomy 4:1-2; 17:19; Joshua 8:34; Psalms 19:7-10; 119:11,89,105,140; Isaiah 34:16; 40:8; Jeremiah 15:16; 36:1-32; Matthew 5:17-18; 22:29; Luke 21:33; 24:44-46; John 5:39; 16:13-15; 17:17; Acts 2:16ff.; 17:11; Romans 15:4; 16:25-26; 2 Timothy 3:15-17; Hebrews 1:1-2; 4:12; 1 Peter 1:25; 2 Peter 1:19-21.

II. GOD

There is one and only one living and true God. He is an intelligent, spiritual, and personal Being, the Creator, Redeemer, Preserver, and Ruler of the universe. God is infinite in holiness and all other perfections. God is all powerful and all knowing; and His perfect knowledge extends to all things, past, present, and future, including the future decisions of His free creatures. To Him we owe the highest love, reverence, and obedience. The eternal triune God reveals Himself to us as Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, with distinct personal attributes, but without division of nature, essence, or being.

A. GOD THE FATHER

God as Father reigns with providential care over His universe, His creatures, and the flow of the stream of human history according to the purposes of His grace. He is all powerful, all knowing, all loving, and all wise. God is Father in truth to those who become children of God through faith in Jesus Christ. He is fatherly in His attitude toward all men.

B. GOD THE SON

Christ is the eternal Son of God. In His incarnation as Jesus Christ He was conceived of the Holy Spirit and born of the virgin Mary. Jesus perfectly revealed and did the will of God, taking upon Himself human nature with its demands and necessities and identifying Himself completely with mankind yet without sin. He honored the divine law by His personal obedience, and in His substitutionary death on the cross He made provision for the redemption of men from sin. He was raised from the dead with a glorified body and appeared to His disciples as the person who was with them before His crucifixion. He ascended into heaven and is now exalted at the right hand of God where He is the One Mediator, fully God, fully man, in whose Person is effected the reconciliation between God and man. He will return in power and glory to judge the world and to consummate His redemptive mission. He now dwells in all believers as the living and ever present Lord.

C. GOD THE HOLY SPIRIT

The Holy Spirit is the Spirit of God, fully divine. He inspired holy men of old to write the Scriptures. Through illumination He enables men to understand truth. He exalts Christ. He convicts men of sin, of righteousness, and of judgment. He calls men to the Saviour, and effects regeneration. At the moment of regeneration He baptizes every believer into the Body of Christ. He cultivates Christian character, comforts believers, and bestows the spiritual gifts by which they serve God through His church. He seals the believer unto the day of final redemption. His presence in the Christian is the guarantee that God will bring the believer into the fullness of the stature of Christ. He enlightens and empowers the believer and the church in worship, evangelism, and service.

III. MAN

Man is the special creation of God, made in His own image. He created them male and female as the crowning work of His creation. The gift of gender is thus part of the goodness of God's creation. In the beginning man was innocent of sin and was endowed by his Creator with freedom of choice. By his free choice man sinned against God and brought sin into the human race. Through the temptation of Satan man transgressed the command of God, and fell from his original innocence whereby his posterity inherit a nature and an environment inclined toward sin. Therefore, as soon as they are capable of moral action, they become transgressors and are under condemnation. Only the grace of God can bring man into His holy fellowship and enable man to fulfill the creative purpose of God. The sacredness of human personality is evident in that God created man in His own image, and in that Christ died for man; therefore, every person of every race possesses full dignity and is worthy of respect and Christian love.

Genesis 1:26-30; 2:5,7,18-22; 3; 9:6; Psalms 1; 8:3-6; 32:1-5; 51:5; Isaiah 6:5; Jeremiah 17:5; Matthew 16:26; Acts 17:26-31; Romans 1:19-32; 3:10-18,23; 5:6,12,19; 6:6; 7:14-25; 8:14-18,29; 1 Corinthians 1:21-31; 15:19,21-22; Ephesians 2:1-22; Colossians 1:21-22; 3:9-11.

IV. SALVATION

Salvation involves the redemption of the whole man, and is offered freely to all who accept Jesus Christ as Lord and Saviour, who by His own blood obtained eternal redemption for the believer. In its broadest sense salvation includes regeneration, justification, sanctification, and glorification. There is no salvation apart from personal faith in Jesus Christ as Lord.

A. Regeneration, or the new birth, is a work of God's grace whereby believers become new creatures in Christ Jesus. It is a change of heart wrought by the Holy Spirit through conviction of sin, to which the sinner responds in repentance toward God and faith in the Lord Jesus Christ. Repentance and faith are inseparable experiences of grace.

Repentance is a genuine turning from sin toward God. Faith is the acceptance of Jesus Christ and commitment of the entire personality to Him as Lord and Saviour.

B. Justification is God's gracious and full acquittal upon principles of His righteousness of all sinners who repent and believe in Christ. Justification brings the believer unto a relationship of peace and favor with God.

C. Sanctification is the experience, beginning in regeneration, by which the believer is set apart to God's purposes, and is enabled to progress toward moral and spiritual maturity through the presence and power of the Holy Spirit dwelling in him. Growth in grace should continue throughout the regenerate person's life.

D. Glorification is the culmination of salvation and is the final blessed and abiding state of the redeemed.

Genesis 3:15; Exodus 3:14-17; 6:2-8; Matthew 1:21; 4:17; 16:21-26; 27:22-28:6; Luke 1:68-69; 2:28-32; John 1:11-14,29; 3:3-21,36; 5:24; 10:9,28-29; 15:1-16; 17:17; Acts 2:21; 4:12; 15:11; 16:30-31; 17:30-31; 20:32; Romans 1:16-18; 2:4; 3:23-25; 4:3ff.; 5:8-10; 6:1-23; 8:1-18,29-39; 10:9-10,13; 13:11-14; 1 Corinthians 1:18,30; 6:19-20; 15:10; 2 Corinthians 5:17-20; Galatians 2:20; 3:13; 5:22-25; 6:15; Ephesians 1:7; 2:8-22; 4:11-16; Philippians 2:12-13; Colossians 1:9-22; 3:1ff.; 1 Thessalonians 5:23-24; 2 Timothy 1:12; Titus 2:11-14; Hebrews 2:1-3; 5:8-9; 9:24-28; 11:1-12:8,14; James 2:14-26; 1 Peter 1:2-23; 1 John 1:6-2:11; Revelation 3:20; 21:1-22:5.

V. GOD'S PURPOSE OF GRACE

Election is the gracious purpose of God, according to which He regenerates, justifies, sanctifies, and glorifies sinners. It is consistent with the free agency of man, and comprehends all the means in connection with the end. It is the glorious display of God's sovereign goodness, and is infinitely wise, holy, and unchangeable. It excludes boasting and promotes humility.

All true believers endure to the end. Those whom God has accepted in Christ, and sanctified by His Spirit, will never fall away from the state of grace, but shall persevere to the end. Believers may fall into sin through neglect and temptation, whereby they grieve the Spirit, impair their graces and comforts, and bring reproach on the cause of Christ and temporal judgments on themselves; yet they shall be kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation.

Genesis 12:1-3; Exodus 19:5-8; 1 Samuel 8:4-7,19-22; Isaiah 5:1-7; Jeremiah 31:31ff.; Matthew 16:18-19; 21:28-45; 24:22,31; 25:34; Luke 1:68-79; 2:29-32; 19:41-44; 24:44-48; John 1:12-14; 3:16; 5:24; 6:44-45,65; 10:27-29; 15:16; 17:6,12,17-18; Acts 20:32; Romans 5:9-10; 8:28-39; 10:12-15; 11:5-7,26-36; 1 Corinthians 1:1-2; 15:24-28; Ephesians 1:4-23; 2:1-10; 3:1-11; Colossians 1:12-14; 2 Thessalonians 2:13-14; 2 Timothy 1:12; 2:10,19; Hebrews 11:39-12:2; James 1:12; 1 Peter 1:2-5,13; 2:4-10; 1 John 1:7-9; 2:19; 3:2.

VI. THE CHURCH

A New Testament church of the Lord Jesus Christ is an autonomous local congregation of baptized believers, associated by covenant in the faith and fellowship of the gospel; observing the two ordinances of Christ, governed by His laws, exercising the gifts, rights, and privileges invested in them by His Word, and seeking to extend the gospel to the ends of the earth. Each congregation operates under the Lordship of Christ through democratic processes. In such a congregation each member is responsible and accountable to Christ as Lord. Its scriptural officers are pastors and deacons. While both men and women are gifted for service in the church, the office of pastor is limited to men as qualified by Scripture.

The New Testament speaks also of the church as the Body of Christ which includes all of the redeemed of all the ages, believers from every tribe, and tongue, and people, and nation.

Matthew 16:15-19; 18:15-20; Acts 2:41-42,47; 5:11-14; 6:3-6; 13:1-3; 14:23,27; 15:1-30; 16:5; 20:28; Romans 1:7; 1 Corinthians 1:2; 3:16; 5:4-5; 7:17; 9:13-14; 12; Ephesians 1:22-23; 2:19-22; 3:8-11,21; 5:22-32; Philippians 1:1; Colossians 1:18; 1 Timothy 2:9-14; 3:1-15; 4:14; Hebrews 11:39-40; 1 Peter 5:1-4; Revelation 2-3; 21:2-3.

VII. BAPTISM AND THE LORD'S SUPPER

Christian baptism is the immersion of a believer in water in the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. It is an act of obedience symbolizing the believer's faith in a crucified, buried, and risen Saviour, the believer's death to sin, the burial of the old life, and the resurrection to walk in newness of life in Christ Jesus. It is a testimony to his faith in the final resurrection of the dead. Being a church ordinance, it is prerequisite to the privileges of church membership and to the Lord's Supper.

The Lord's Supper is a symbolic act of obedience whereby members of the church, through partaking of the bread and the fruit of the vine, memorialize the death of the Redeemer and anticipate His second coming.

Matthew 3:13-17; 26:26-30; 28:19-20; Mark 1:9-11; 14:22-26; Luke 3:21-22; 22:19-20; John 3:23; Acts 2:41-42; 8:35-39; 16:30-33; 20:7; Romans 6:3-5; 1 Corinthians 10:16,21; 11:23-29; Colossians 2:12.

VIII. THE LORD'S DAY

The first day of the week is the Lord's Day. It is a Christian institution for regular observance. It commemorates the resurrection of Christ from the dead and should include exercises of worship and spiritual devotion, both public and private. Activities on the Lord's Day should be commensurate with the Christian's conscience under the Lordship of Jesus Christ.

Exodus 20:8-11; Matthew 12:1-12; 28:1ff.; Mark 2:27-28; 16:1-7; Luke 24:1-3,33-36; John 4:21-24; 20:1,19-28; Acts 20:7; Romans 14:5-10; 1 Corinthians 16:1-2; Colossians 2:16; 3:16; Revelation 1:10.

IX. THE KINGDOM

The Kingdom of God includes both His general sovereignty over the universe and His particular kingship over men who willfully acknowledge Him as King. Particularly the Kingdom is the realm of salvation into which men enter by trustful, childlike commitment to Jesus Christ. Christians ought to pray and to labor that the Kingdom may come and God's will be done on earth. The full consummation of the Kingdom awaits the return of Jesus Christ and the end of this age.

Genesis 1:1; Isaiah 9:6-7; Jeremiah 23:5-6; Matthew 3:2; 4:8-10,23; 12:25-28; 13:1-52; 25:31-46; 26:29; Mark 1:14-15; 9:1; Luke 4:43; 8:1; 9:2; 12:31-32; 17:20-21; 23:42; John 3:3; 18:36; Acts 1:6-7; 17:22-31; Romans 5:17; 8:19; 1 Corinthians 15:24-28; Colossians 1:13; Hebrews 11:10,16; 12:28; 1 Peter 2:4-10; 4:13; Revelation 1:6,9; 5:10; 11:15; 21-22.

X. LAST THINGS

God, in His own time and in His own way, will bring the world to its appropriate end. According to His promise, Jesus Christ will return personally and visibly in glory to the earth; the dead will be raised; and Christ will judge all men in righteousness. The unrighteous will be consigned to Hell, the place of everlasting punishment. The righteous in their resurrected and glorified bodies will receive their reward and will dwell forever in Heaven with the Lord.

Isaiah 2:4; 11:9; Matthew 16:27; 18:8-9; 19:28; 24:27,30,36,44; 25:31-46; 26:64; Mark 8:38; 9:43-48; Luke 12:40,48; 16:19-26; 17:22-37; 21:27-28; John 14:1-3; Acts 1:11; 17:31; Romans 14:10; 1 Corinthians 4:5; 15:24-28,35-58; 2 Corinthians 5:10; Philippians 3:20-21; Colossians 1:5; 3:4; 1 Thessalonians 4:14-18; 5:1ff.; 2 Thessalonians 1:7ff.; 2; 1 Timothy 6:14; 2 Timothy 4:1,8; Titus 2:13; Hebrews 9:27-28; James 5:8; 2 Peter 3:7ff.; 1 John 2:28; 3:2; Jude 14; Revelation 1:18; 3:11; 20:1-22:13.

XI. EVANGELISM AND MISSIONS

It is the duty and privilege of every follower of Christ and of every church of the Lord Jesus Christ to endeavor to make disciples of all nations. The new birth of man's spirit by God's Holy Spirit means the birth of love for others. Missionary effort on the part of all rests thus upon a spiritual necessity of the regenerate life, and is expressly and repeatedly commanded in the teachings of Christ. The Lord Jesus Christ has commanded the preaching of the gospel to all nations. It is the duty of every child of God to seek constantly to win the lost to Christ by verbal witness undergirded by a Christian lifestyle, and by other methods in harmony with the gospel of Christ.

Genesis 12:1-3; Exodus 19:5-6; Isaiah 6:1-8; Matthew 9:37-38; 10:5-15; 13:18-30, 37-43; 16:19; 22:9-10; 24:14; 28:18-20; Luke 10:1-18; 24:46-53; John 14:11-12; 15:7-8,16; 17:15; 20:21; Acts 1:8; 2; 8:26-40; 10:42-48; 13:2-3; Romans 10:13-15; Ephesians 3:1-11; 1 Thessalonians 1:8; 2 Timothy 4:5; Hebrews 2:1-3; 11:39-12:2; 1 Peter 2:4-10; Revelation 22:17.

XII. EDUCATION

Christianity is the faith of enlightenment and intelligence. In Jesus Christ abide all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge. All sound learning is, therefore, a part of our Christian heritage. The new birth opens all human faculties and creates a thirst for knowledge. Moreover, the cause of education in the Kingdom of Christ is co-ordinate with the causes of missions and general benevolence, and should receive along with these the liberal support of the churches. An adequate system of Christian education is necessary to a complete spiritual program for Christ's people.

In Christian education there should be a proper balance between academic freedom and academic responsibility. Freedom in any orderly relationship of human life is always limited and never absolute. The freedom of a teacher in a Christian school, college, or seminary is limited by the pre-eminence of Jesus Christ, by the authoritative nature of the Scriptures, and by the distinct purpose for which the school exists.

Deuteronomy 4:1,5,9,14; 6:1-10; 31:12-13; Nehemiah 8:1-8; Job 28:28; Psalms 19:7ff.; 119:11; Proverbs 3:13ff.; 4:1-10; 8:1-7,11; 15:14; Ecclesiastes 7:19; Matthew 5:2; 7:24ff.; 28:19-20; Luke 2:40; 1 Corinthians 1:18-31; Ephesians 4:11-16; Philippians 4:8; Colossians 2:3,8-9; 1 Timothy 1:3-7; 2 Timothy 2:15; 3:14-17; Hebrews 5:12-6:3; James 1:5; 3:17.

XIII. STEWARDSHIP

God is the source of all blessings, temporal and spiritual; all that we have and are we owe to Him. Christians have a spiritual debtorship to the whole world, a holy trusteeship in the gospel, and a binding stewardship in their possessions. They are therefore under obligation to serve Him with their time, talents, and material possessions; and should recognize all these as entrusted to them to use for the glory of God and for helping others. According to the Scriptures, Christians should contribute of their means cheerfully, regularly, systematically, proportionately, and liberally for the advancement of the Redeemer's cause on earth.

Genesis 14:20; Leviticus 27:30-32; Deuteronomy 8:18; Malachi 3:8-12; Matthew 6:1-4,19-21; 19:21; 23:23; 25:14-29; Luke 12:16-21,42; 16:1-13; Acts 2:44-47; 5:1-11; 17:24-25; 20:35; Romans 6:6-22; 12:1-2; 1 Corinthians 4:1-2; 6:19-20; 12; 16:1-4; 2 Corinthians 8-9; 12:15; Philippians 4:10-19; 1 Peter 1:18-19.

XIV. COOPERATION

Christ's people should, as occasion requires, organize such associations and conventions as may best secure cooperation for the great objects of the Kingdom of God. Such organizations have no authority over one another or over the churches. They are voluntary and advisory bodies designed to elicit, combine, and direct the energies of our people in the most effective manner. Members of New Testament churches should cooperate with one another in carrying forward the missionary, educational, and benevolent ministries for the extension of Christ's Kingdom. Christian unity in the New Testament sense is spiritual harmony and voluntary cooperation for common ends by various groups of Christ's people. Cooperation is desirable between the various Christian denominations, when the end to be attained is itself justified, and when such cooperation involves no violation of conscience or compromise of loyalty to Christ and His Word as revealed in the New Testament.

Exodus 17:12; 18:17ff.; Judges 7:21; Ezra 1:3-4; 2:68-69; 5:14-15; Nehemiah 4; 8:1-5; Matthew 10:5-15; 20:1-16; 22:1-10; 28:19-20; Mark 2:3; Luke 10:1ff.; Acts 1:13-14; 2:1ff.; 4:31-37; 13:2-3; 15:1-35; 1 Corinthians 1:10-17; 3:5-15; 12; 2 Corinthians 8-9; Galatians 1:6-10; Ephesians 4:1-16; Philippians 1:15-18.

XV. THE CHRISTIAN AND THE SOCIAL ORDER

All Christians are under obligation to seek to make the will of Christ supreme in our own lives and in human society. Means and methods used for the improvement of society and the establishment of righteousness among men can be truly and permanently helpful only when they are rooted in the regeneration of the individual by the saving grace of God in Jesus Christ. In the spirit of Christ, Christians should oppose racism, every form of greed, selfishness, and vice, and all forms of sexual immorality, including adultery, homosexuality, and pornography. We should work to provide for the orphaned, the needy, the abused, the aged, the helpless, and the sick. We should speak on behalf of the unborn and contend for the sanctity of all human life from conception to natural death. Every Christian should seek to bring industry, government, and society as a whole under the sway of the principles of righteousness, truth, and brotherly love. In order to promote these ends Christians should be ready to work with all men of good will in any good cause, always being careful to act in the spirit of love without compromising their loyalty to Christ and His truth.

Exodus 20:3-17; Leviticus 6:2-5; Deuteronomy 10:12; 27:17; Psalm 101:5; Micah 6:8; Zechariah 8:16; Matthew 5:13-16,43-48; 22:36-40; 25:35; Mark 1:29-34; 2:3ff.; 10:21; Luke 4:18-21; 10:27-37; 20:25; John 15:12; 17:15; Romans 12-14; 1 Corinthians 5:9-10; 6:1-7; 7:20-24; 10:23-11:1; Galatians 3:26-28; Ephesians 6:5-9; Colossians 3:12-17; 1 Thessalonians 3:12; Philemon; James 1:27; 2:8.

XVI. PEACE AND WAR

It is the duty of Christians to seek peace with all men on principles of righteousness. In accordance with the spirit and teachings of Christ they should do all in their power to put an end to war.

The true remedy for the war spirit is the gospel of our Lord. The supreme need of the world is the acceptance of His teachings in all the affairs of men and nations, and the practical application of His law of love. Christian people throughout the world should pray for the reign of the Prince of Peace.

Isaiah 2:4; Matthew 5:9,38-48; 6:33; 26:52; Luke 22:36,38; Romans 12:18-19; 13:1-7; 14:19; Hebrews 12:14; James 4:1-2.

XVII. RELIGIOUS LIBERTY

God alone is Lord of the conscience, and He has left it free from the doctrines and commandments of men which are contrary to His Word or not contained in it. Church and state should be separate. The state owes to every church protection and full freedom in the pursuit of its spiritual ends. In providing for such freedom no ecclesiastical group or denomination should be favored by the state more than others. Civil government being ordained of God, it is the duty of Christians to render loyal obedience thereto in all things not contrary to the revealed will of God. The church should not resort to the civil power to carry on its work. The gospel of Christ contemplates spiritual means alone for the pursuit of its ends. The state has no right to impose penalties for religious opinions of any kind. The state has no right to impose taxes for the support of any form of religion. A free church in a free state is the Christian ideal, and this implies the right of free and unhindered access to God on the part of all men, and the right to form and propagate opinions in the sphere of religion without interference by the civil power.

Genesis 1:27; 2:7; Matthew 6:6-7,24; 16:26; 22:21; John 8:36; Acts 4:19-20; Romans 6:1-2; 13:1-7; Galatians 5:1,13; Philippians 3:20; 1 Timothy 2:1-2; James 4:12; 1 Peter 2:12-17; 3:11-17; 4:12-19.

XVIII. THE FAMILY

God has ordained the family as the foundational institution of human society. It is composed of persons related to one another by marriage, blood, or adoption.

Marriage is the uniting of one man and one woman in covenant commitment for a lifetime. It is God's unique gift to reveal the union between Christ and His church and to provide for the man and the woman in marriage the framework for intimate companionship, the channel of sexual expression according to biblical standards, and the means for procreation of the human race.

The husband and wife are of equal worth before God, since both are created in God's image. The marriage relationship models the way God relates to His people. A husband is to love his wife as Christ loved the church. He has the God-given responsibility to provide for, to protect, and to lead his family. A wife is to submit herself graciously to the servant leadership of her husband even as the church willingly submits to the headship of Christ. She, being in the image of God as is her husband and thus equal to him, has the God-given responsibility to respect her husband and to serve as his helper in managing the household and nurturing the next generation.

Children, from the moment of conception, are a blessing and heritage from the Lord. Parents are to demonstrate to their children God's pattern for marriage. Parents are to teach their children spiritual and moral values and to lead them, through consistent lifestyle example and loving discipline, to make choices based on biblical truth. Children are to honor and obey their parents.

Genesis 1:26-28; 2:15-25; 3:1-20; Exodus 20:12; Deuteronomy 6:4-9; Joshua 24:15; 1 Samuel 1:26-28; Psalms 51:5; 78:1-8; 127; 128; 139:13-16; Proverbs 1:8; 5:15-20; 6:20-22; 12:4; 13:24; 14:1; 17:6; 18:22; 22:6,15; 23:13-14; 24:3; 29:15,17; 31:10-31; Ecclesiastes 4:9-12; 9:9; Malachi 2:14-16; Matthew 5:31-32; 18:2-5; 19:3-9; Mark 10:6-12; Romans 1:18-32; 1 Corinthians 7:1-16; Ephesians 5:21-33; 6:1-4; Colossians 3:18-21; 1 Timothy 5:8,14; 2 Timothy 1:3-5; Titus 2:3-5; Hebrews 13:4; 1 Peter 3:1-7.

CHURCH-STATE RELATIONS

OUR HISTORIC CONCEPT OF RELIGIOUS LIBERTY

Democracy itself is rooted in the assumption that man is capable of making the choices needed for governance of his own life and his social institutions. This assumption is based in turn on the Christian concept that man is essentially a spiritual being; and only through the responses of his spiritual nature can he relate himself to God and thus rise above his animal limitations. But only one who is free can make a genuine response to God. Religious freedom is, therefore, antecedent to the creation of civil and political freedom, which constitutes the nature of democracy.

Historically, Baptists have been aggressive advocates of absolute freedom of conscience for all men. In England and Colonial America they led in formulating the concept of church-state separation. The power of government then was arbitrary and absolute, backed by an established church, the two often working in collusion to give mutual support to each other. The established church forced its doctrine and modes of worship upon all, with government lending use of its power to punish dissenters. Thus protected and supported, the established church itself was a strong political force. When joined to protect and expand their mutual vested interests, the two constituted a powerful political combine, perpetuating their power through forcing conformity in worship and stamping out dissent.

Baptists believed that this denied to man the right to live as God had willed that he live, a free and self-determining being. It destroyed an individual's liberty of the spirit, freedom of conscience, right of choice - in short, all that made a man a man, according to the Baptist conception. It was in the context of these experiences that Baptists evolved their unique conception of complete separation of the two in their respective operations.

During the evolution of the separation concept their focus of concern was always to protect the individual, Baptist or not, in the free exercise of his religious conscience, always, of course, within the context of the Christian concept of life dedicated to ministering to and serving the needs of people - whether family, neighbor or stranger. Just so on the present issue. Louisiana Baptists recognize, as Jesus indicated to Peter on the mountain top, that their place is down there in the valley where the people are - teaching, healing, serving. We are free, not to enjoy release from the demands of life, but to carry out the work of our Lord on the streets of life where men work, learn, and suffer.

GUIDELINES

This committee was appointed essentially "to recommend guidelines for policy implementation" concerning institutional use of governmental funds. In actuality, the Louisiana Baptist Convention has by its practice already adopted a general policy of selective participation in government programs, wherever it was felt there was no impingement on the institution's independence. It is the element of "selectivity" in this policy that makes it essential, for the guidance of all concerned - the Convention officers and the trustees and administrators of the institution. Out of its deliberations, the committee has identified certain statements of general principle which appear to offer valid guidelines for those responsible for institutional decision making.

First: The Institution Should Identify and Clarify Its Basic Purposes.

Through continuing study and open discussion, the administrators, staff, and representatives of the governing board should develop a clear-cut understanding of the basic nature and purposes of the institution. This should be reduced to writing and circulated regularly among all related in any way with the institution.

This study should become an ongoing process of constant re-evaluation in light of our constantly changing social and technological demands. To provide leadership for this is a function of the executive officer.

Second: Any Assistance That Creates a Limitation on or Diversion From These Purposes Should Not Be Permitted.

Once the institutional staff and its constituency are clear in their concept of the institution's nature and primary purposes, all limitations or diversions, financial or otherwise, should be avoided.

Third: Acceptance of Government Grants.

No grant to the institution from any government agency shall be accepted. A grant shall be construed to be any transfer of funds or property for which the institution does not give adequate consideration.

Fourth: The Institution Must Retain Its Own Integrity In the Matter of Control.

In considering whether to seek or accept funds of any type, the institution must determine whether any part of the agreement provides for governmental control of the institution's affairs - except for normal accounting procedure for the shared funds.

The institution must retain the right to determine what religious activities will be held on the premises. The Trustees of the institution and their staff must have freedom to operate in accordance with principles and policies inherent in good programs and not on the expediency of politics.

Fifth: Participation Relationships Must be Voluntary, With Clear-Cut Terminal Arrangements.

In participating in government programs, the relationship should be voluntary on both sides, with either party able to terminate the agreement when it appears desirable. The agreement should indicate clearly the point at which the participating institution has fulfilled its obligation in the contract.

Sixth: The Institution Must Not Become Dependent on These Funds for Program Operation.

The trustees should not permit acceptance of funds in any area of program to such an extent that the institution becomes so dependent on outside funds that it would suffer unduly if they were discontinued.

Seventh: The Institution Must Protect the Integrity of Its Basic Programs.

The trustees must guard against any tendency on the part of the institution to become so involved with government programs that the institutional programs begin to grow around the emphasis on this public phase of its work to the neglect of its private sector.

Eighth: The Institution Must Not Accept Funds That Relate to Teaching of Religion.

The trustees should not accept any governmental funds that might in any way come to influence the way in which religion is taught or the word of God spread in the institution.

Ninth: The Institution's Trustees Should Have a Large Degree of Freedom in Decision-making In These Operational Matters.

After the Convention has adopted a definite statement of policy guidelines, it should give the institutional trustees a large degree of freedom, within the guidelines, to formulate programs and make decisions affecting the ongoing program in this area as in others. With appropriate reporting through the established channels, the trustees will keep the Convention informed on their program decisions. Only so can the Convention and the trustees perform their respective roles with integrity.

The proper function of the Convention is to establish over-all policy directions. That of the trustees and their administrators is to develop and implement programs for the individual institutions within the framework of these established policy statements.

39. Executive Director Steve Horn began his report with expressing appreciation to Dr. Chuck Pourciau and his team and members for their graciousness in hosting the Annual Meeting. Dr. Horn presented his report focusing on four key areas of our partnership as Louisiana Baptists. 1) Connect – Instead of a theme for Annual Meeting as in past years, we have adopted a title for the Annual Meeting of “Connect” and we will continue to use this title in the years to come which defines the very purpose of our annual gathering. 2) Cooperate – The strength of our relationship as well as the strength of our impact is the willingness of very different churches to cooperate with one another for the sake of God’s kingdom. 3) Commission – Our Commission is simple and has been handed down to us by our Lord as the Great Commission (Matthew 28:19-20). Dr. Horn announced the 3:16 Sunday scheduled for March 16 and challenged that every Louisiana Baptist pastor preach from John 3:16 on that Sunday. 4) Commitment – Dr. Horn stated that our personal commitment to the Lord is the most important. Our devotion in the past does not guarantee our devotion for today. Our devotion today does not guarantee our devotion for the future. We must walk daily with the Lord. He concluded his report by thanking messengers for attending Connect 2024. He asked them to take his challenge back to their communities and churches and lead them to connect better, cooperate more fully, be on fire for the Great Commission, and pay attention to their own personal commitment to the Lord.

50. Committee on Order of Business Chairman, Ronnie McLellan, presented a report from the committee:
Terry Young, messenger, Airline, Shreveport, presented three motions. The committee believes that motion one is more of a resolution than a motion. After speaking with Terry, he decided to withdraw his motion. Motion two has been scheduled for debate at 3:40 p.m., and motion three has been referred to the Executive Board. Lewis Richerson, messenger, Woodlawn, Baton Rouge, presented a motion to amend Article, VI, section 5, of the LBC Articles of Incorporation. For those who were not in the hall during the morning session, when the motion was presented, Dr. Horn informed the messengers that a paragraph had been inadvertently omitted from the LBC Articles of Incorporation as printed in the Book of Reports. The following paragraph was omitted: LBC Articles of Incorporation – ARTICLE XVIII. AMENDMENTS These articles may be amended at any annual meeting session of the Convention, or at a special session convoked specially for this purpose, by two-thirds of the messengers present and voting, provided: Section 1. Proposed amendments originating on the floor of the Convention were submitted in writing at the previous session the Convention, published in full in the Annual and referred to the Executive Board of the Convention for study and recommendation. Therefore, the committee has referred this motion to the Executive Board for further deliberation and consideration and to report back to the messengers at the 2025 Annual Meeting.

REPORT OF EXECUTIVE BOARD

Tim Williams, President

Steve Horn, Executive Director

Follow the pattern of the sound words that you have heard from me, in the faith and love that are in Christ Jesus. By the Holy Spirit who dwells within us, guard the good deposit entrusted to you. 2 Timothy 1:13-14

Greetings. It is an honor to serve Louisiana Baptists as the President of the Executive Board. I am grateful for Tracy Graham who served in this role until June, but had a change in ministry assignment into a role as a catalyst for church planting. Thank you for your service.

Our previous Executive Board President, Dustin Stockstill, is now serving as an International Mission Board Missionary in Europe. Pray for their missionary efforts.

It is a great testimony for Louisiana Baptists that its leaders, pastors, and lay persons are continually committed to the task of taking the Gospel to the ends of the earth.

The Executive Board has four standing committees: Properties, Administrative, Missions Support, and Business and Finance. We provide oversight for Louisiana Baptists and support the work of our Executive Director, Dr. Steve Horn and the LBC ministry team.

Our Missions and Ministry Team, led by Dr. James Jenkins, is now in a new partnership with the North American Mission Board (NAMB) called SEND Louisiana to identify, train, and deploy church planters. Lane Corley is our SEND Louisiana coordinator. We currently have 42 planters engaged in the process. All across our state, churches are engaging communities with the Gospel.

Administratively, our Executive Director is engaged in providing an insurance alternative for Churches. This is a multi-denominational effort to start a self-insurance cooperative to address the church insurance crisis. Praying for funding to make this significant need a reality.

God has entrusted to Louisiana Baptists a good deposit and with the guidance of the Holy Spirit, we will be found faithful. Thank you for your faithfulness as followers of Christ in sharing the good news of great joy to all people.

Pray for your Executive Board as it prepares the 2025 budget, presents motions that provide clarity, and for wisdom to navigate the storms (literally and spiritually) in these days. Louisiana Baptists are grateful for your support of the cooperative program. Would you prayerfully consider a small increase in your cooperative program giving for 2025?

Thank you for the honor to serve Louisiana Baptist.

STATE MISSIONS SERVICES FOR CHURCHES AND ASSOCIATIONS

EXECUTIVE TEAM

Dr. Steve Horn, Executive Director

In Paul's famous Areopagus Address (Acts 17), in the midst of his great apologetic, evangelistic appeal, he declared, "From one man he has made every nationality to live over the whole earth and has determined their appointed times and the boundaries of where they live" (Acts 17:26).

I think of this verse often as I reflect on God's appointment of our living in Louisiana at this moment in history. As we work to establish a culture of evangelism in our state, you have hopefully heard me say, "There are approximately 4.6 million people living among us in these boundary lines of Louisiana. Every one of them has a name and a story. This is our work. This is our calling."

How can we fulfill this calling? How can we establish a culture of evangelism that permeates everything we do as Louisiana Baptists? Together we can...

- Seek the Lost
- Strengthen Churches
- Support our Missions and Ministries

Notice how one feeds the next. As we seek the lost together, we strengthen churches. As together we strengthen churches, we can better support cooperative missions and ministries that feed this culture of evangelism.

For example, we celebrate the increased baptisms of 2023. To God be the glory. We know He gives the increase, but you have been the ones who have planted and watered through your individual witness as well as through our media outreach strategy, Here for You. Thank you for your faithfulness to this ongoing task of seeking the lost.

As you read this, you might be one of those churches that has not realized an increase in salvation decisions and baptisms. Through the power of cooperation, we can come alongside you to equip and help strengthen your church.

Cooperative missions and ministries are in the DNA of Louisiana Baptists. As we approach 2025, we'll have the opportunity to acknowledge and celebrate the 100th anniversary of the Cooperative Program, which was championed by Louisiana pastor M.E. Dodd. We want to be the pacesetter in showing the effectiveness, efficiency, and genius of the CP. We still believe that the Cooperative Program is the best strategy for fulfilling the Acts 1:8 mandate.

In the pages that follow, you'll read about some of the ways you are maximizing Gospel impact as you participate in the Cooperative Program. As you read, give thanks to God for what He has done, and ask Him what He wants to accomplish through your church and this family of faith called Louisiana Baptists.

Louisiana Baptists—we are here for you!

BUSINESS AND INFORMATION SERVICES TEAM

Dale D. Lingenfelter, Director

The Business and Information Services Team serves as a support group for all the work of the LBC State Missions Services. The team provides expertise in the areas of financial accounting, information technology, facilities maintenance, office services, and human resources as well as providing hosting and program services for conferences and camps through Tall Timbers. Our goal is to enhance and support the work of all LBC Teams, so they accomplish the missions and ministry goals of the Convention.

In addition to coordinating the Annual Church Profile (ACP) process for the state, Shana Johnson serves as Information Services Support Manager and is responsible for the overall information technical support systems of the Convention and provides assistance to several state entities that are housed within the Baptist Building. In cooperation with other SBC state conventions and national SBC entities, Information Services has been instrumental in developing an online database of all SBC congregations and leadership. This program has become the national database for all SBC congregations and all SBC entities, both state and national. The database consists of all information collected through the ACP each year, as well as information directly communicated to the office. All information is retained to maintain historical, statistical, and leadership information for each reporting congregation. Through her team's effort along with assistance from the entire State Mission Services Staff, ACP reporting of all Louisiana Baptist congregations maintains an above average reporting percentage within the SBC network of congregations.

The LBC Accounting Team provides competent tax and accounting information to Louisiana Baptist churches. In addition to supporting the finances of State Missions Services, we assist with questions on Budgeting, Accounting, Payroll Taxes, and Church Accounting issues. We are here to help you! Our contact information can be found on the LBC website. In addition, consistent with prior years, the Louisiana Baptist Convention received an excellent review on our Annual Audit Report.

Tall Timbers is continuing to strive to provide a quality retreat and camp facility that honors the Lord, and desires individuals to experience life change through the power of the gospel. Tall Timbers has many things to celebrate, including a record number of guests, along with several new hires. Brandon Penton was named Director in February, and Lisa Broussard was named Associate Director a few months later in May. The camp is also celebrating the completion of its pool project that started back in 2023.

The Business and Information Services Team considers all its various areas of support work as ministry unto the Lord. We count it a privilege to serve our Lord by serving our colleagues and Louisiana Baptists in the work of reaching Louisiana for Christ and strengthening our churches.

BAPTIST COLLEGIATE MINISTRY

Mark Robinson, Director

BCM continues to facilitate a culture of evangelism on our college campuses. Students are being trained to share their faith with family and classmates each week of the year. This coming fall we will observe ENGAGE 24, a statewide evangelistic emphasis on October 22, 2024. Campuses will have 24-hour intensive programming, gospel appointments, prayer tables, and worship events focusing on responding to the Gospel. We will also focus on leading students to discover their call to serve the Lord at the Geaux24 conference October 4-5 at Calvary Baptist Church in Alexandria. You can direct your young leaders to a website we have designed to help them navigate their way through the process of training and identifying a place of service. Go to www.calledtoministry.org.

Over 200 students from 7 campuses across the state served on mission to Mexico last December. This has become a consistent part of the GOLA missions program. Our GOLA VBS program has expanded to involve five one-week VBS teams and one six-week team serving in Louisiana. The Wyoming VBS/Camp team continued to serve this summer, and a new team served with the Montana Baptist Convention this summer.

We are looking forward to another great year reaching the colleges in Louisiana with the Gospel of Christ!

COMMUNICATIONS TEAM

John Kyle, Director

What is our goal?

The obvious answer is to communicate. But in the process of communicating, your Communications Team is attempting to raise the creativity and quality of all we do.

We do this for three reasons:

1. We believe striving for this goal honors the Lord. He is the author of creativity and quality. Everything He does is good, and when we pursue Paul's admonition, "Whatever you do, do it from the heart, as something done for the Lord ..." (Colossians 3:23), we believe it pleases and honors Him.

2. We believe this goal encourages the teams. Your strategists work hard to provide relevant resources and exciting, substantive events. We work with them to capture their ideas and translate those into what you see and hear. The strategists often share your feedback when you notice the designs and videos are creative, current, and professionally done.

3. Finally, we believe it blesses the churches. You deserve resources and events that not only capture your eye, but also your heart. Hopefully, as you review the available opportunities, the creativity and quality of what you see motivates you to pursue additional information relating to the opportunity presented.

As we pursued this goal in 2023, we conducted 18 production meetings with 17 strategists. In addition, we conducted 80+ ideation meetings where we prayed through, talked through, and researched ideas that became concepts for the strategists to review and eventually deploy.

Some, but certainly not all, of the events created and designed by the Communications Team include:

- YEC
- CEC
- Embrace
- Breakaway Camps
- Kids Camps
- Children's Mission Camps
- ReGroup
- Champion's Camp
- ECON
- PAUSE
- Georgia Barnette Louisiana Missions Offering

In addition to the opportunities above, we continue to create and air Here for You commercials that creatively and consistently share God's truth in hearts and homes across Louisiana. We share your desire to reach people who do not attend anyone's church. Since 2019, there have been over 2,000 searches for local churches and more than 4,300 indicated decisions for Christ.

What is our goal? To raise the creativity and quality of all we do in order to help you seek the lost, strengthen your church, and support cooperative missions and ministries. We pray that both you and the Lord have been pleased with these efforts.

EVANGELISM AND CHURCH GROWTH TEAM

Keith Manuel, Director

This past year's Evangelism Conference was hosted by Temple, Ruston and focused on a culture of evangelism. Next year ECON will be January 27-28, 2025, at First, Covington.

Sean Keith is your Sunday School, Church Administration, and Revitalization Strategist. Jefferson, Baton Rouge hosted last year's ReGroup and included a Spanish language track with an attendance of approximately 550. In addition, 300 people received small group training around the state. Fresh Start, our strategy for helping churches that need some form of revitalization, continues to connect with Pastors and churches. In 2025, ReGroup's locations are Franklin Avenue, New Orleans and Central Louisiana, TBD.

Lee Myers serves as your Youth Strategist. The Youth Evangelism Celebration (YEC) ministered to over 5,300 youth and adults. Summer camps at Tall Timbers saw an attendance of 1,364 teens gathering for worship, equipping, and fun. Over 104 students made decisions for the Lord, with 13 responding to a call to ministry. In addition to the spiritual decisions made at camps and YEC, students learned how to share their faith and returned home equipped to impact others with the Gospel. Over 6,600 students learned how to share their faith or personal testimony to share the Good News. We are praying for a great YEC, November 24-25, 2024, at the Rapides Coliseum in Alexandria.

Serving as your Children's Ministry Strategist is David Anderson. This year our children's camps at Tall Timbers had an attendance of over 1,194. We had 53 children make professions of faith and gave $6,845 to missions. VBS trainings allowed approximately 300 hundred workers to learn how to lead their congregations through the most effective evangelistic outreach across the SBC. David also assists our churches with the State Bible Drill, Childhood Education Workshops, and a statewide retreat for Children's Ministers.

New to our staff as of July 1, 2024, is Kevin Ulmer who serves as your Evangelism Strategist. He will work in all areas of evangelism but especially in the areas of personal and church evangelism. He will also coordinate the Senior Adult Luncheon at ECON.

The Evangelism & Church Growth Team loves to serve you by training your leaders and church members in evangelism, discipleship, and age-group ministries. Please, contact us if we can assist you in any way.

MISSIONS AND MINISTRY TEAM

James Jenkins, Director

Reaching Louisiana for Jesus is the primary goal of the Missions and Ministry Team of the Louisiana Baptist Convention. Strategists on our team all focus their attention on helping our churches build a culture of evangelism in Louisiana. Below you will find the reports from every area of our work.

Send Network Louisiana

Lane Corley, James Jenkins, Carlos Schmidt, Jacob Crawford

The vision of Send Network is to reach 1% of North America's lost population through planting 11,000 new churches that each reach at least 125 people with the gospel over the next decade. For North America, that means reaching 2.75 million people.

For Louisiana, 1% of our lost population would mean reaching 29,000 people with the gospel. That means that there are at least 2.9 million people lost without Christ in our state. To achieve this goal through church planting, we are working to plant 231 new churches that each must reach 125 new people for Christ.

In the last year, we have seen 35 church planters endorsed through Send Network Louisiana and nine new church plants in which over 500 people came to faith in Christ.

We have also developed a Send Network Louisiana strategic prayer plan. Our goal is to mobilize churches to pray for a movement of God in our state and to see lostness impacted with the gospel of Jesus. We are currently hosting weekly online prayer gatherings and seek to multiply these prayer groups to each region of the state: Southeast, Southwest, Central, and North.

Church planting has helped Louisiana Baptists reach people groups including Anglo, African American, Vietnamese, Burmese, Chinese, Korean, Haitians, Eritrean, Arabic, Hispanic, and Portuguese.

Language Missions and Partnership Missions

Carlos Schmidt

In partnership with Send Network Louisiana, three traditional Hispanic Church plants were started in New Orleans and one in Denham Springs. We are still working on two new Hispanic churches in New Orleans, one in Luling and one in Franklin, one Chinese church in Slidell, and a New Pilipino Church in Hammond.

In Language church development four Hispanic simple church evangelism trainings were conducted in the New Orleans area and two small group workshops were conducted, one in the North and one in the South.

Partnership Missions was instrumental in mobilizing a team of 14 people to Indonesia and collaborated on a DR Feeding team to Israel. Current partnerships still include Belarus, Brazil, Puerto Rico, Cape Breton Island, Canada, Honduras, Yucatan Mexico, Indonesia, Senegal, London, Colombia, and Madrid.

Men's Ministries and Disaster Relief

Stanley L. Statham

Since our last report, Louisiana has suffered two significant wildfires, multiple severe thunderstorms, and tornadoes across the state. North LA recorded the most tornado warnings in recorded history (67). We have deployed chainsaw teams, chaplains, quick response feeding units, asset protection, and shower trailers to various locations.

Since the last report, several churches (Shady Grove in Pitkin, FBC, Slidell, and the Bridge Church Fellowship in Breau Bridge) have suffered damage from storms, with Beulah Baptist Church in Mansfield, LA, suffering catastrophic damage.

We have deployed DR teams to Texas multiple times. LA DR operated a major site in Huffman, TX, for two weeks to assist the community in recovering from flooding. We also deployed a team to Pennsylvania for flood recovery work. A feeding team served for two weeks in Hawaii, assisting with recovery work related to the wildfire there. Members of LA DR participated with Texans on Mission to feed soldiers in Israel.

The Disaster Relief Rebuild Ministry continues to grow. We currently focus on the Point Aux Chenes area, which is predominantly an American Indian tribe. Former IMB missionaries continue to serve as our on-site coordinators, coordinating volunteer rebuild teams. Working with multiple partners, we have completed the construction of two homes.

We have also completed several homeowner site demolition and clean-up and many home repair projects in Pointe aux Chenes and surrounding communities. The first two home dedications will take place on August 29, 2024, on the 3rd anniversary of Hurricane Ida and the 1-year anniversary of beginning the first new home construction. We are evaluating and planning to begin church property rebuilding project(s) in 2025.

Compassion Ministries

Stanley L. Statham

Compassion Ministry seeks to 1) Meet needs, 2) Build Trust, 3) Share the Gospel, and 4) Connect people to the local church. Compassion ministry opens doors for evangelism through such strategies as ESL (English as a Second Language), Christmas Backpack Ministry, Drug Recovery, chaplain ministry, and food pantries.

We continue to develop a team of Association Compassion Missionaries (ACM) in several associations across the state. Each ACM is tasked to lead and start new compassion ministries.

Since our last report, we are working to expand the chaplain ministry by engaging pastors and laypeople in one of the seven disciplines recognized by NAMB. In the regular 2024 session, the LA State Legislature passed Senate Bill 123, allowing LA schools to employ or accept volunteer chaplains to support programs for students, teachers, and parents. The local school board must approve chaplains. The LBC Compassion Relief Ministry is developing a strategy to train school chaplains and assist in placing them in schools.

In August of each year, the SBC sets aside the last Sunday of the month to promote the Global Hunger Fund. LA Compassion Relief promotes this offering through the LA / Global Hunger Fund. The LBC receives twenty cents of each dollar donated, and these funds help support food banks and feeding ministries across Louisiana. The remaining eighty percent of the funds go to support Send Relief and the important ministry they engage in globally.

Volunteer Mobilization and Mission Builders

Mark Morelock & Mark Jelks

The Louisiana Baptists Mission Builder program has had a great year serving the churches of our state. We continue to prioritize our focus on serving mission churches to achieve their goal of obtaining a permanent place of worship to strengthen their discipleship efforts and to better serve and evangelize their communities.

In addition to our building projects, we have served many churches this year through consultations and assisting them in the planning phases of their building growth projects as they seek to expand their Kingdom impact.

We have had the pleasure of hosting volunteer groups from all around our state and from other parts of the country as they partner with Louisiana Baptist churches to achieve their construction goals.

The Mission Builder team was pleased to achieve three certificates of occupancy for projects this year which included two stand-alone structures and a storefront worship center. Please be in prayer for these churches as they are taking the next steps to better seek the lost and support cooperative missions and ministries.

Your Mission Builder team is looking forward to another great year of service to our Louisiana Baptists partners. Thank you for your continued support through volunteerism and the Georgia Barnette Louisiana Missions Offering to make the Mission Builder program a success!

Women's Missions and Ministry

Christine Gill

The Women's Missions and Ministry (WMM) Team continued to lead Louisiana Baptist women to serve and minister throughout our state.

Embrace, the annual WMM conference for all Louisiana Baptist women, was held in April 2024 at FBC New Orleans. During the conference, we celebrated 125 years of WMU in Louisiana! Leadership from 43 churches participated in the celebration.

WMM led Louisiana Baptist women to donate and pack over six-hundred gift boxes for incarcerated women in 2023. In 2024, WMM will hold one packing day in September on the campus of Louisiana Christian University. Our goal this year is to provide at least 600 boxes. WMM volunteers will distribute these giftboxes to the inmates at The Louisiana Correctional Institute for Women (LCIW) on September 27.

Ministers' Wives Retreat, a weekend of renewal and appreciation for our ministers' wives in the state, took place in October 2023 at Tall Timbers.

Louisiana Baptist churches remained generous in their giving for 2023. In fact, the Georgia Barnette Louisiana Missions Offering receipts were the second highest in the history of the offering! Our prayer is to be joined by more mission giving churches in 2024.

- Georgia Barnette Louisiana Missions Offering (Jan. 1, 2023-Dec. 2023)

Received $1,704,634.58

State Goal $1,750,000

- Lottie Moon Christmas Offering for International Missions (Sept. 1, 2023-Aug. 31, 2024)

Children and Youth Mission Education

Erin Jones

This year has been a great year for Children and Youth Mission Education. We held our first annual Teen Girls Retreat at Clara Springs Camp and Conference Center in Pelican, Louisiana, in March 2024 with 236 middle and high-school-aged girls in attendance.

Two Mission Jamborees (M-JAM) took place in 2024. M-JAM North was hosted by McClendon Baptist Church in West Monroe with around 180 in attendance. M-JAM South was hosted by First Community Antioch Baptist Church in Litcher with around 65 in attendance. North and South M-JAM events will be held again in 2025.

Children's Mission Camp and Mini MAC in July 2024 had over 600 children in attendance with 28 different churches represented between the two camps. We had 265 in attendance for Children's Mission Camp and 357 in attendance for Mini MAC. This makes a total of 622 in attendance for both camps. We had 30 staff not included in that number. We collected $1,645.09 towards GBO. Five decisions were made to follow Christ and more seeds were planted.

Pastoral Leadership Ministry Team

Ray Swift, Director

Psalms 3:3-4 has been my theme since I came to the convention in 2021. "But you, Lord, are a shield around me, my glory, and the one who lifts up my head. I cry aloud to the Lord, and he answers me from his holy mountain."

As I continue my fourth year here at the convention, I have been able to better define my purpose as to LOVE, LISTEN, LEAD, and LIFT UP Louisiana Baptist pastors and churches.

Believing more so today that healthy pastors produce healthy churches, I will continue to intentionally focus on pastor wellness: emotional, financial, physical, relational, and spiritual. With that focus the Lord is showing me two specific avenues/paths to make this happen. 1) Helping Louisiana Baptist pastors have a good start in their call and in their church; 2) Helping Louisiana Baptist pastors stay true to their call and to stay longer at their church as God leads so.

Last year the Lord blessed in so many ways through the events that we were able to host. We had great attendance and sweet participation in each of these. I am looking forward to continuing several of these events and even adding new ones in the year to come.

The following resources are available to help churches and pastors make a good start:

- Resume Services: www.goservela.org This website helps pastors review ministry opportunities and gives churches the opportunity of posting a ministry position.
- Pastor Search Committee training: guides churches through a deliberate process and helps churches select the right candidate.
- Deacon Training: the New Testament ministry of the Deacon is a needed component for the pastor and church.

- New Pastor/Wife fellowship: introduction to the State Missions Services Staff, the convention entities, and the Louisiana Baptist Convention building, for fellowship with other pastors and wives.
- Church Administration Resources: a Louisiana Baptist website devoted to numerous forms, articles and information related to all matters of church budget/finances, security, policies, committees, and staff.

These resources are provided to help pastors stay longer:

- Pastor Appreciation month – October: we all need encouragement from time to time, and October helps us show love and appreciation to all our pastors.
- Pause Retreat: weekend for pastors and wives at Tall Timbers Conference Center. A wonderful time of worship, teaching, and fellowship.
- Shepherd's Rest: sabbatical for pastors to get away to refresh and renew.
- Granberry Counseling: we are blessed and privileged to partner with the wonderful staff and counselors at Louisiana Baptist Children's Home & Family Ministers for this service.
- Church Conflict Summit: 18% left a church due to church conflict; 13% for burnout, 12% poor fit with church. Conflict can be managed and dealt with Biblically.
- Sexual Abuse Response Council (SARC) continues to provide new and updated resources to churches and individuals for all matters related to Sexual Abuse. Information is available on our website www.louisianabaptists.org/resources.
- Singing Ministers & Singing Women: These volunteers gather each August to prepare for concerts in local churches, detention centers, youth intervention programs, and prisons. As they share their talents, they also share their faith. For more information visit LouisianaBaptists.org/pastors.

With sincerity of heart and with an abundance of joy, it is my pleasure to serve all of Louisiana Baptists.

LOUISIANA BAPTIST MESSAGE

Will Hall, Executive Editor

In 2024, we celebrated our 137th anniversary as the first cooperative ministry established by Louisiana Baptists, and it is a pleasure to report that the news looks good for our entity as we move toward the future:

-- The Baptist Message is on sound financial footing.

-- Operationally, we have the right team in place and have refined our processes to ensure best practices.

-- Moreover, our vision “to establish a fellowship with Louisiana Baptists as a partner in the Gospel in reaching the lost in our state, the nation and the world” remains relevant as does our mission “to equip Louisiana Baptists for life, work and ministry.”

During this past year, we continued to focus our reporting on the Louisiana Baptist Convention’s efforts to restore a culture of evangelism among our churches. Indeed, in June we broke the news that baptisms had surged more than 31 percent in the past year among Louisiana Baptists, to a new post-COVID high of 8,770 salvations! This was on top of the nearly 19 percent jump that was recorded in 2022 – meaning that Louisiana Baptists baptized 3,140 more new believers in 2023 than in 2021 (5,630).

In the near term we are committed to specific coverage about the church planting initiative, Send Network Louisiana, which was announced a year ago. We will provide ongoing updates about Louisiana Baptists’ partnership with the SBC’s North American Mission Board to see God’s Kingdom expanded in Louisiana by one percent over the next decade. Researchers estimate that 62.4 percent of 4,648,794 Louisianans are lost (or, 2,789,276). If successful, 28,875 Louisianans will be added to the Kingdom through 231 new churches planted in the state by 2033 (based on each reaching 125 people with the Gospel). These salvations will be in addition to those recorded by already established Louisiana Baptist congregations.

Meanwhile, in the longer term, specifically the next 1-3 years, we will be developing and adding electronic products and services to complement our website and social media channels. We are conducting something of a “Nehemiah’s Walk” this year and possibly into 2025 to get a better understanding of what is being offered on other platforms and what would be beneficial to our newspaper readers and online viewers.

Office of Public Policy

The Office of Public Policy worked with Louisiana Baptist lawmakers and other like-minded legislators to successfully champion key legislation relating to moral issues and social concerns:

-- Act 676, championed by Rep. Dodie Horton, a member with First Baptist Church, Haughton, is a first-in-the-nation requirement to restore, after about a 50-year absence, the Ten Commandments to every publicly funded classroom, kindergarten through college, in Louisiana. The displays are to be paid for by public donations, and proponents estimate that about $100,000 in gifts are needed to outfit all Louisiana schools.

-- Act 293, authored by Sen. Mark Abraham, a member with Trinity Baptist Church, Lake Charles, allows “Each city, parish, or other local public school board” to “employ or accept as a volunteer a certified chaplain to provide support, services and programs for students, staff, and parents.”

-- Horton and Rep. Raymond Crews, a member with First Baptist Church, Bossier City, successfully pushed through Acts 681 and 680, respectively. The first prohibits school employees from discussing LGBT matters during instructional time. The second, officially known as “The Given Name Act,” requires schools to use an individual’s legal name or a derivative of it and the pronouns that are consistent with a person’s biological sex.

-- Rep. Kim Carver, a deacon with First Baptist Church, Covington, authored Act 656, which bans social media companies from collecting data that can be used to target advertising at minors, and Act 216, which requires any individual who provides care for or services to a child in a voluntary or professional capacity “to be offered training on the statutory requirements and responsibility of reporting child abuse and neglect.”

-- Act 436, authored by Rep. Roger Wilder, a member with Hebron Baptist Church, Denham Springs, requires facilities designated for biological females (dormitories, restrooms, changing rooms, domestic violence shelters, juvenile detention and correctional centers) to remain that way for the protection of girls and women from sexual assault, violence and harassment by biological males.

-- Sen. Stewart Cathey, a member with First Baptist Church, West Monroe, championed Act 586 to significantly strengthen penalties for human trafficking, with the harshest punishment for those who prey on minors for commercial sex. These more stringent sentencing requirements could figure prominently as deterrents to sex crimes early in 2025, when Super Bowl LIX comes to New Orleans. Sports championship events like it have been linked with surges in human trafficking for sexual activity.

-- Sen. Adam Bass, a member with Cypress Baptist Church, Benton, pushed through Act 398 to expand the use of “safe haven baby box” (a climate-controlled, electronically monitored device that allows parents to anonymously surrender an “unwanted” newborn in a safe environment) to now include “any designated emergency care facility that is staffed continuously on a 24-hour basis, seven days a week, and 365 days a year” if it meets detailed requirements for qualified personnel on duty, constant monitoring of the baby box and essential equipment on hand to ensure the newborn’s safety and health. The new law promises to rescue babies who otherwise might face abandonment in less ideal conditions.

Sen. Rick Edmonds, who retired as pastor of Calvary Baptist Church, Shreveport, and now serves as pastor of First Baptist Church, McComb, Mississippi, carried the banners for adoption and school choice during the 2024 legislative session:

-- Act 332 mandates that mothers who receive a “fetal abnormality” diagnosis for an unborn child must be informed about “resources, programs, and services for pregnant women and resources, programs, and services for infants and children born with disabilities” within 48 hours of such a diagnosis (to encourage and assist a mother and father to carry such a baby to term).

-- Act 515 creates an “Adoption Awareness Program” that will “encourage the formation and maintenance of two-parent families.” The Department of Children and Family Services must hire a vendor to facilitate marketing, create a website, and provide a telephone or video hotline, with each promoting educational information about resources that encourage adoption.

-- Act 362 restricts adoption services in the state to “an adoption facilitator or an entity ... licensed in La. to assist in the adoption of children.” This restriction applies even “to advertise for adoption services.” It also requires these individuals and organizations to be designated as mandatory reporters of abuse.

-- Act 334 authorizes “school choice options for parents, teachers, and pupils,” by granting operational autonomy for “innovative kinds of independent public charter schools” from the control of city and parish school boards. However, these charter schools are still accountable for their academic results which will “be analyzed, considered, and repeated or replicated if appropriate.”

-- Act 91 recenters the authority for a child to participate in the “Course Choice Program” from the local school superintendent or other governing authority of a school to the student with his or her parents to make such decisions “after consultation with the person designated by the governing authority of the school.”

-- Act 1, “Louisiana Giving All True Opportunity to Rise (LA GATOR) Scholarship Program” provides for educational savings accounts to support parental choice in K-12 education. Essentially, state tax dollars for education will follow the student “whether the child’s best opportunities are found at a public school, charter school, private school, home study program, or at a faith-based or religious school.” The program also ensures students in non-traditional school settings may subsequently participate in the “Taylor Opportunity Program for Students” (TOPS) which provides funds for postsecondary education.

Meanwhile, the Office of Public Policy collaborated with conservative allies to protect the state from perilous legislation that would have endangered the unborn as well as negatively impacted the general population, including pro-abortion, anti-traditional marriage and recreational marijuana bills:

-- House Bill 98 would have deleted the Defense of Marriage Act from the Louisiana Constitution. However, we successfully argued in committee that DOMA should be kept on the books while social conservatives fight to overturn Obergefell v. Hodges, the U.S. Supreme Court ruling that legalized gay marriage.

-- HB 164 offered to narrow the abortion ban in Louisiana by creating exceptions for rape (which accounts for less than 1 percent of all abortions in the United States) and incest (about 0.5 percent of abortions). Groups like Planned Parenthood would have exploited these loopholes to advise all their clients to claim rape and incest, effectively ending the state’s abortion ban. The bill died in committee.

-- HB 649 proposed a scheme to regulate recreational marijuana in case it was legalized. The bill was moved favorably out of committee but was defeated on the House floor (as a substitute bill, HB 978), with 58 against the measure and 36 in favor.

Although lawmakers handily killed this recreational pot bill, they rejected legislation that would have banned THC from hemp consumable products that are being pushed in convenience stores, local grocery markets and gas stations.

Importantly, the issue is not marijuana (cannabis, weed, pot) or hemp, but THC, which is the psychoactive element in both.

Moreover, the debate took place the week that news broke from sheriffs of various parishes about children being rushed to emergency rooms after eating THC candies shared with them by classmates (data indicates THC poisonings have soared 645 percent in the state).

In the end, most lawmakers bowed to the pressures from 1,500 hemp merchants who are seeing profits rocket from selling THC-laced edibles and drinks, and both chambers of the legislature eventually approved THC in hemp consumables (with some minor limits) via passage of HB 952.

Fortunately, conservatives in the U.S. Congress may come to Louisiana’s rescue, with the House Agriculture Committee crafting a farm bill (Farm, Food, and National Security Act of 2024: H.R. 8467) that would “prohibit the commercial production, sale, and distribution of certain intoxicating hemp derivatives and products.”

Church Self-Insurance Update

Louisiana Baptists have led the effort to establish a response to the church insurance crisis in our state, and major milestones have been achieved:

-- Act 259 was signed into law and authorizes the creation of the Louisiana Churches and Nonprofit Religious Organizations Self-Insured Fund.

-- Leaders of six faith communities have volunteered to serve on the governing board of the initial corporation (they will create the permanent corporation that will administrate the self-insurance program). They held their organizing meeting August 6 and voted to adopt Articles of Incorporation and to apply for nonprofit status with the Louisiana Secretary of State and the Internal revenue Service.

-- A state source for $3 million of initial funding has been tentatively identified by Gov. Landry. This money will cover costs for catastrophic modeling and other steps needed to establish a premium schedule for participants. An estimated $6 million of additional money will be needed to purchase the reinsurance policy for the first year of operations. The combined $9 million of funding will be a one-time grant that will be replaced in future years by the ongoing premiums paid by participants.

-- The Risk Program Administrators, a subsidiary of Gallagher Risk Management (Monroe) continues to guide our efforts to bring this program online, with a projected start-up date in the second quarter of 2025..

LOUISIANA BAPTIST CHILDREN'S HOME AND FAMILY MINISTRIES

Dr. Perry Hancock, President and CEO

In its 125th year of ministry Louisiana Baptist Children's Home and Family Ministries continued its mission of providing love, care, and hope in Christ for children and families in need. The Children's Home provided a positive Christian witness through its residential child and family care programs, foster care and adoption ministries, Granberry Counseling Centers, Minister Care Residential program, Women's Learning Center, Compassion for Kids, and Orphans Embrace.

The Children's Home provided ministry services for over 8,000 children, families, and individuals. Through its on-campus and off-campus residential programs, 126 children and homeless mothers were served. An additional 310 families received placement referral services.

Granberry Counseling Centers provided professional Christian counseling for 837 individuals. Through its Minister Care program, a partnership with the Louisiana Baptist Convention Pastoral Leadership division, Granberry provided counseling for 38 Louisiana Baptist minister families.

Women's Learning Center (formerly Christian Women's Job Corps) provided educational and vocational training for 47 women. The ministry maintained its adult education certification as an official HiSET training and testing site and offered Paraprofessional Education and Banking Services certificates. Each day, WLC staff lead the women in Bible study and prayer.

Through its Compassion for Kids ministry, the Children's Home served over 7,000 children and family members. Items provided include diapers, toys, backpacks, school supplies, food, and other life essentials. Hundreds of Bibles and 1,000s of gospel tracts were distributed.

The new Compassion Center opened late in the year. The 15,000 square foot facility houses the offices of Compassion for Kids and serves as a distribution facility that provides life essentials to partner churches and other compassion ministries. The goal of Compassion for Kids is to reach 25,000 – 30,000 children and families in need each year.

The Children's Home also shared God's love in word and deed through its international orphan care ministry, Orphans Embrace. Thirty-four children were served through Louisiana Reach Haiti. The ministry is sponsored by the Children's Home and several Louisiana Baptist churches.

Throughout the year the Children's Home celebrated its 125th Anniversary. The theme for the observance was A Legacy of Hope. Special events highlighted the impact Louisiana Baptists have made on the lives of children and families in need since 1899. In July a new Legacy Room was opened which features a ministry timeline and memorabilia.

Louisiana Baptist churches once again provided support for the Children's Home through the Cooperative Program and the Annual Children's Home Sunday Offering. Churches also met the needs of the children and families through the Fall Food Roundup, VBS offerings, and other special projects.

As a result of the support from our churches and the witness provided by the various ministries of the Home, many children and family members experienced the joy of salvation in Christ and were baptized in local churches. Many others made new commitments to the Lord. Thank you, Louisiana Baptists, for meeting needs and changing lives in Jesus' name through your Louisiana Baptist Children's Home and Family Ministries.

LOUISIANA BAPTIST FOUNDATION

Dr Jeffrey Steed, Executive Director

Thank you, Louisiana Baptists, for partnership opportunities as we celebrate 80 years of ministry! We are grateful for God's blessings on the Louisiana Baptist Foundation. We ended 2023 with $257 + million in assets under management, representing funds owned by Louisiana Baptist churches and other ministries and gifts primarily managed perpetually for Kingdom impact. Every dollar generated from these funds represents another dollar to advance the Kingdom by spreading the Gospel.

In 2023, the Foundation continued executing its LBF Vision200™ strategic plan that was initiated in 2020. We are driven to advance the Kingdom...one dollar at a time, one ministry at a time, one life at a time. The overall vision is to advance the Kingdom through the Foundation's ministry by $200 million in twenty years or less. Specifically, the Foundation will benefit the Kingdom through (1) facilitating planned gifts beyond cash and (2) providing funds management and other services for ministries to enhance their impact. As of the end of 2023, the Foundation's current Kingdom-impact amount achieved is $43+ million towards the 20-year goal of $200 million. To accomplish this goal, the Foundation focuses on four objectives:

(1) Planned Giving:

- A. Providing educational content to churches to teach practical ways members can benefit their church beyond cash (Louisiana Legacy publication),
- B. Speaking in churches and other ministry organizations to educate constituents on being good stewards of their estates,
- C. Providing an online platform for giving non-cash gifts to churches and ministries (www.Giving-Gateway.net)
- D. Having comprehensive planned giving website content,
- E. Sending periodic communications to constituents,
- F. Providing confidential one-on-one meetings with prospective donors,
- G. Encouraging individuals to impact their family and the Kingdom through their estates,
- H. Facilitating the logistics of special gifts, and
- I. Providing every Louisiana Baptist the opportunity to obtain a free basic Will document when at least tithing her/his estate to a church and/or other ministries.

(2) Church/Ministry Services: The Foundation provides church-business-related services through ChurchBiz Central™ to help churches and ministries increase their God-given funds. For example, the Short-Term Fund helps these organizations typically earn more on cash reserves and designated accounts than a bank. Other valuable services available include online giving and payroll services.

(3) Comprehensive Marketing Plan: The Foundation continues to have a comprehensive communication plan that utilizes multiple channels to focus on services that advance the Kingdom.

(4) Operations: The Foundation will continue to have a well-skilled and experienced staff that provides top-tier service to help organizations further enhance Kingdom-impact.

The Foundation continued toward its LBF Vision 200™ in 2024 by implementing a promotional focused on celebrating 80 years of ministry. For each new account opened, the Foundation will donate an additional $80 to the new account. For each new gift created, the Foundation will donate an additional $80 toward the gift.

The Foundation is grateful to Louisiana Baptists for ministry partnerships around the state over the last 80 years. We look forward to the next 80 years for His glory!

LOUISIANA CHRISTIAN UNIVERSITY

David Jeffreys, Acting President

American culture is changing, but God's Word is not. Louisiana Christian University remains committed to the constancy of God's Word. Its message resonates for all generations.

While culture shifts beneath our feet, we pledge to remain rooted in God's Word, our hope now and in the future.

Just as many Christian colleges and universities have experienced declining enrollment over the last few years, LCU, too, has struggled. Yet, as Romans 5:3-4 tells us--

"Not only so, but we also glory in our sufferings, because we know that suffering produces perseverance; perseverance, character; and character, hope."

LCU will persevere while remaining true to its mission to be a Christ-centered community committed to academic excellence where students are equipped for lives of learning, leading and serving. We will not lower our standards. We will not weaken our academic rigor nor our Christian foundations. While we open our doors to students from all backgrounds, LCU will maintain its high standards of morality, academics, and sportsmanship.

We believe this is the only way to honor our mission to produce well-educated, God-fearing, loving, and empathetic leaders regardless of the career paths or callings that are placed on our students' lives.

The 2023-24 academic year was one of change at LCU, as President Dr. Rick Brewer, the university's ninth president, retired from higher education administration in the Spring.

In addition, the university saw the academic infrastructure reorganized into schools and colleges headed by deans to further the professionalism and stability of the school moving into the future. We believe these changes will promote strength and growth.

Our desire moving forward is to make Louisiana Christian University the best it can be and continue its longstanding tradition of both preparing graduates and transforming lives for the Kingdom of God for generations to come.

In that comes a renewed pledge to be honorable stewards of the Cooperative Program funds and generous gifts that LCU has received from its churches and members across the state of Louisiana.

We are thankful for your money, your time, your prayers, and your continued support now and moving forward as we search for our next president of this great university.

We are hopeful and confident the Lord will send LCU exactly the right person for this important mission field in Central Louisiana.

COMMITTEE ON MORAL AND SOCIAL CONCERNS

Chad Gilbert, Chairman

The Louisiana Baptist Convention Bylaws charge the Committee on Moral and Social Concerns to “identify, study, provide information, and recommend actions on moral and social concerns which need to be of particular concern to Louisiana Baptists” and we have done so this year with two resolutions which we submitted to the Committee on Resolutions, who has included our inputs among the consensus statements they will submit to messengers.

Additionally, the CMSC is “authorized to speak publicly and/or conduct campaigns to influence the outcome of current issues on which the Executive Board or the Convention have taken an official position.” In this regard, we are moving forward to lead a combined effort among Louisiana Baptists, in coordination with Southern Baptists and government agencies, to address the anticipated increased human trafficking activity related to the upcoming National Football League’s Super Bowl LIX slated to take place in New Orleans on February 9, 2025.

RECOMMENDED ACTIONS

During our fall meeting, August 27, we crafted “RESOLUTION: ON SUPPORT OF VOLUNTEER CHAPLAINS IN SCHOOLS” in response to the successful effort by state Sen. Mark Abraham, a faithful member of Trinity Baptist Church in Lake Charles, to pass legislation, S.B. 123, signed into law, Act 293, by Gov. Jeff Landry, which provides for “the employment or acceptance as a volunteer of a certified chaplain by public school boards.”

This law permits school districts to hire or to allow volunteer certified chaplains, who have been cleared through state and federal databases, to serve in Louisiana’s schools.

During committee hearings, Sen. Abraham testified that 15 states already were engaged in similar initiatives and that two other states had passed similar legislation, noting that “In these 30,000 schools, teen pregnancies are drastically down; suicides are zero; and it [chaplain program] has been helping with mental illness – not only for the students, but also for the teachers.”

Already, the CMSC has been in contact with the Executive Board, and the Louisiana Baptist Disaster Relief team is incorporating the certification of volunteer school chaplains into its already existing chaplain certification program.

We also crafted “RESOLUTION: AGAINST HUMAN TRAFFICKING,” which restates Louisiana Baptists’ condemnation of human trafficking and urges churches as well as cooperative ministries to train to protect, rescue and restore victims of human trafficking, with particular emphasis on being prepared for a sex trafficking surge relating to Super Bowl LIX.

Additionally, this consensus statement challenges congregations to make that date a day of special prayer for the women and children trapped by the sex trade industry.

PUBLIC CAMPAIGN

Regarding our human trafficking resolution, as chairman of the Committee on Moral and Social Concerns, I convened a meeting, Monday, Nov. 11, to begin the process of energizing action among Louisiana Baptists, in coordination with Southern Baptists and government agencies, to combat human trafficking and to rescue and restore victims of increased sex slavery we expect as exploitation of Super Bowl LIX.

Invitees included:

- Louisiana Baptist Committee on Moral and Social Concerns
- Louisiana Baptist Office of Public Policy
- Louisiana Baptist Children’s Home & Family Ministries
- Louisiana Baptist Compassion Ministries
- New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary
- New Orleans Baptist Association
- New Orleans Baptist Ministries
- Send Relief New Orleans
- Baptist Friendship House
- The Hub: Urban Ministries / Purchased: Not for Sale
- Greater New Orleans Human Trafficking Task Force
- Louisiana Governor’s Office of Human Trafficking Prevention

Our hope is to inform and equip congregations to recognize and respond to human trafficking to interdict this illegal activity. Likewise, we desire to provide rescued women and children safe spaces to be restored as well as to experience the love of Christ.

CONVENTION COMMITTEE ON RESOLUTIONS

Field Thigpen, Chairman

RESOLUTION 1: ON THE CENTENNIAL ANNIVERSARY OF THE COOPERATIVE PROGRAM

WHEREAS, The Louisiana Baptist Convention was established to “provide the means through which Louisiana Baptist churches and members can cooperate in bringing persons to God” within our state; and

WHEREAS, The Louisiana Baptist Convention “recognizes the Southern Baptist Convention as the primary instrument used by Baptists to further the cause of Christ on a worldwide basis”; and

WHEREAS, Louisiana Baptists have a special historical relationship with the Cooperative Program in that M.E. Dodd was a Louisiana Baptist pastor when he led the 1925 effort to establish the “Co-Operative Program of Southern Baptists,” making it possible for churches to support the missionary, education, and benevolent work within their respective states while cooperating with churches from other states to reach the world; and

WHEREAS, In 2025 our Baptist fellowship of national entities, state conventions and local associations across the United States will celebrate the centennial anniversary of the Cooperative Program for how it has supported our global “partnership in the Gospel” (Philippians 1:5); now therefore be it

RESOLVED, That the messengers to the 177th session of the Louisiana Baptist Convention, meeting in Shreveport, Louisiana, November 12, 2024, express gratitude to God for His providential guidance in the creation of the Cooperative Program and for 100 years of His multiplied blessings through this primary channel of financial support for Baptist cooperative missions and ministries; and be it further

RESOLVED, That we celebrate each Louisiana Baptist congregation who, in addition to their own missions activities, supports the missions and ministries of the Louisiana Baptist Convention and the Southern Baptist Convention by generous giving through the Cooperative Program; and be it further

RESOLVED, That we affirm the Cooperative Program “as the most effective [financial] means of mobilizing our churches and extending our outreach”; and be it finally

RESOLVED, That we commit ourselves to the celebration and promotion of the Cooperative Program within our churches, associations, and entities during 2025 to honor God’s favor to our cooperative missions and ministries through the Cooperative Program for the past 100 years.

RESOLUTION 2: ON SUPPORT OF VOLUNTEER CHAPLAINS IN SCHOOLS

WHEREAS, Children have been entrusted to parents by the Lord and represent our nation's future and our spiritual legacy; and

WHEREAS, God has given parents the responsibility for the upbringing and education of our children (Proverbs 22:6; Deuteronomy 6:6-7); and

WHEREAS, God has ordained the state to promote good and restrain evil, thereby cultivating the conditions necessary for the flourishing of children and families which are not defined by arbitrary or subjective moral claims, but by basic moral goods rooted in the character of God (1 Peter 2:14); and

WHEREAS, The state has established a public education system as one means for promoting the general welfare of the people, mandating school attendance, in general, for children between the ages of six and 18 years old; and

WHEREAS, Mandatory attendance establishes schools as mission and ministry fields (Matthew 28:18-20), providing opportunities to support and strengthen fellow followers (1 Thess. 5:11) as well as to allow God to make His appeal through us to the lost (2 Cor. 5:20); and

WHEREAS, Research shows that religious support has a positive effect on students by reducing suicides, alcohol use and drug use, as well as promoting higher self-esteem, academic achievement and educational attainment, while also improving adolescent mental health; and

WHEREAS, Sen. Mark Abraham, a faithful member of Trinity Baptist Church, Lake Charles, championed a bill to authorize schools to employ or otherwise accept as a volunteer a certified chaplain who has been vetted through state and federal databases; and

WHEREAS, He testified that 15 states already were engaged in similar initiatives and that two other states had passed similar legislation to begin soon, noting that "In these 30,000 schools, teen pregnancies are drastically down; suicides are zero; and it [chaplain program] has been helping with mental illness – not only for the students, but also for the teachers"; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That the messengers to the 177th session of the Louisiana Baptist Convention, meeting in Shreveport, Louisiana, November 12, 2024, commend Sen. Abraham for his wisdom in pushing through the legislation process this authorization to voluntarily make available a crucial spiritual resource in our schools; and be it further

RESOLVED, That we encourage our LBC Executive Board to include chaplaincy certification in the existing disaster relief chaplains training program to certify Louisiana Baptists to volunteer in this school chaplain program; and be it finally

RESOLVED, That we urge our congregations to support the voluntary chaplain program in their neighborhood schools along with other programs that give them access to share the love of Christ in these vital mission fields.

RESOLUTION 3: ON AWARENESS ABOUT HUMAN TRAFFICKING

WHEREAS, The Bible describes each individual as being created in the image of God (Genesis 1:26-27) and affirms the sanctity and dignity of all human life (Psalm 8:4-5); and

WHEREAS, God calls upon believers to speak up for those who cannot defend themselves (Proverbs 31:8-9); and

WHEREAS, Scripture condemns slave traders as ungodly and sinful (1 Timothy 1:8-10); and

WHEREAS, Despite having some of the strictest laws against forced labor and sexual exploitation in the nation, human trafficking in Louisiana has surged from “206 confirmed and prospective victims” in 2015 to “1,615 confirmed and suspected victims” in 2023, with a 57 percent increase in just the last year; and

WHEREAS, Eighty-six percent of the 2023 human trafficking victims were sex trafficked and 83 percent were juveniles; and

WHEREAS, The National Football League’s Super Bowl LIX has been scheduled to be held February 9, 2025, in the Caesars Superdome of New Orleans; and

WHEREAS, There is evidence such sports championships attract human traffickers seeking to profit from sexual exploitation; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That the messengers to the 177th session of the Louisiana Baptist Convention, meeting in Shreveport, Louisiana, November 12, 2024, restate our condemnation of human trafficking; and be it further

RESOLVED, That we encourage our Louisiana Baptist congregations, especially those located along the I-10 and I-20 corridors and in metropolitan areas, to educate their congregants about the signs to recognize victims of sex slavery and forced labor; and be it further

RESOLVED, That we challenge Louisiana Baptists to make February 9, 2025, a day of special prayer emphasis for the protection, rescue and restoration of victims of human trafficking; and be it finally

RESOLVED, That we urge our state cooperative ministries to coordinate with national cooperative ministries as well as with state and federal law enforcement agencies to help rescue victims from human trafficking situations related to Super Bowl LIX such that these women and children see the love of Christ in action, hear the Gospel of salvation and seek hope in Him.

RESOLUTION 4: ON EXPRESSION OF APPRECIATION

WHEREAS, Many individuals and groups have had a part in planning, preparing and conducting the 177th annual meeting of our Louisiana Baptist Convention; and

WHEREAS, The messengers of this Convention desire to warmly recognize and express appreciation to the following:

Dr. Chuck Pourciau, pastor of Broadmoor Baptist Church, Shreveport, as well as the staff and the congregation, for their assistance with details and for providing the use of their facilities for this annual meeting; and

Dr. David Goza, Convention president, and pastor of Jefferson Baptist Church, Baton Rouge, for his warm, gracious spirit in leading, speaking and listening to Louisiana Baptists this year, and his gentle firmness in moderating this annual meeting; and

Jefferson Baptist Church, Baton Rouge, for their commitment to sharing the Gospel in our state by graciously supporting Dr. Goza's leadership of all the churches of the Louisiana Baptist Convention this past year; and

Tyler Hennessee, music director for this annual meeting, who is a member with Broadmoor Baptist Church, Shreveport, for planning and coordinating the music, and the musicians and singers for their contribution of instrumental and vocal talents; and

Ronnie McLellan, chairman of the Committee on Order of Business, and pastor of First Baptist Church, Marrero, and the members of the Committee on Order of Business for planning this informative and inspirational annual meeting; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That the messengers to the 177th session of the Louisiana Baptist Convention, meeting in Shreveport, Louisiana, November 12, 2024, express to each of the above, and to all who contributed our deepest heartfelt gratitude.
